

By the King.

HE King our Soueraigne Lord CHARLES, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britaine, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c. doth giue to vnderstand to all his most louing, faithfull and obedient Subjects, and to euery of them, That, whereas it hath pleased Almighty God, on Sunday, the seuen and twentieth day of this moneth of March, to call vnto his infinite merite, the most excellent High and mighty Prince, King Iames, of most noble and blessed memory, his Maiesties most deare, and most intirely beloued father, whereby the Kings Maiesty, now being his onely sonne and vndoubted Heire, is innestred and established in the Crowne Imperiall of this Realme, and all other his Maiesties Realms, Dominions, and Countreys, with all Regalities, preeminences, stiles, names, titles, and dignities to the same belonging, or in any wise appertaining: The same our Soueraigne Lord doth signifie vnto all his most louing, faithfull and obedient Subjects, that, like as his Maiesty for his part, shal by Gods grace shew himselfe a most gracious and benigne Soueraigne Lord to all his good Subjects, in all their iust and lawfull Suits & Causes: So his Maiestie mistrusteth not but they, and euery of them, will againe on their parts, at all times, & in all cases shew themselves vnto his Maiesty, their naturall liege Lord, most louing, faithfull, and obedient Subjects, according to their most bounden duties and allegiances, whereby they shall please Almighty God, and doe that which shal tend to their owne preservations and safeties, willing and commanding all persons of all estates, degrees and conditions, to see his peace duely kept, & to be obedient to his Lawes, as they tender his Maiesties gracious fauour, and will answere for the contrary at their vttermost perils.

Giuen at the Court at Saint Iames, the eight and twentieth day of March, in the first yeere of his Maiesties Reigne of Great Britaine, France and Ireland.

God saue the King.

Imprinted at London by Bonham Norton and Iohn Bill, Printers to the Kings most Excellent Maiestie.

M.DC.XXV.